

Signs – Lyric Sheet

I'm down on my knees crying Lord help me please Let this nightmare from hell be gone

My body is numb, and I have succumbed
To A world that was right is now wrong

All I dreamed torn apart at the seams
When there's nowhere on earth I find peace

I look deep inside me and my faith reminds me
That one day this sorrow will cease

So I look to the clouds when I long for their smiles
And I know that they must be in heaven

When I miss each one's laughter My ears are attached to the song from a dove that sings clear

Signs from God I'm not alone
Signs that this is not my home signs from God - so my soul will know.

God is here. God is here. Have no fear. God is here.

My womb now is aching because you have taken the gift that can never return

My days are like nights that will never see light
O God I know not your ways.

All I dreamed torn apart at the seams
When there's no sign of relief

From this terrible sorrow and darkened tomorrow
Unbearable, sadness and grief

I look to the clouds when I long for their smiles
And I know that they must be in heaven

When I miss each one's laughter
My ears are attached to the song from a dove that sings clear

Signs from God I'm not alone
Signs that this is not my home
signs from God so my soul will know

Give me courage O God
Give me strength so I can hold on

My suffering silence is but noise
Soften my heart Lord
Faith is my choice
How I long to hear my children's voice...

I think I can hear them, I long to hold them, I miss them,

I pray, oh lord that in my world there's peace and harmony...

Son: In My world I am happy, In my world everything's OK, in my world I can be me, be free, in my world there's peace and harmony.
